BACKGROUND:

work2future functions as the local administrative arm of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA). It operates three One-Stop Career Centers in the areas of San Jose, Campbell and South County. It also provides workforce development services for the cities of Los Gatos, Morgan Hill, Los Altos Hills, Saratoga, Monte Sereno, and the unincorporated areas of Santa Clara County. The goal of work2future is to strengthen the economic base in San Jose and Santa Clara County by increasing employment and business opportunities and job retention for all residents. The Department of Labor is the main funding stream for the centers. Other sources include state and federal grants and private industry. work2future works in partnership with small and large businesses, educational institutions, and community-based organizations. Housed within the City of San Jose Office of Economic Development, work2future is strategically positioned to address the workforce and economic development needs of the local area.
